The Greatest Man January 14, 2008

This man was the nicest person any one could ever meet. He had a good heart, a great soul, and was always full of life. He was a great dad and grandpa, and what he loved most was his kids. He was a great friend and got along with everyone and accepted everybody for who they were. This man was so great because he brought joy to people and always seemed to be putting smiles on faces all the time. He loved making jokes and laughing with everyone. He gave greatness to the ones he loved and was the type of person to give you the shirt off of his back if you needed it. He was a very kind, loving, and giving man, who loved his family more than anything in this world. He was the greatest man we've ever known. Now he left behind his great spirit, and all the best memories we will never forget. The pain has gone away now; see you can finally rest in peace. We Love You and you will be forever in our hearts. By Jasmine Lopez To the most important man in my life.

“ On behalf of Savino and Blacita Sanchez' family, we send our Love and Prayers. Condolences to Danny's immediate family, his brothers and sisters.

The Najar's and then Danny were our neighbors for many years,we have many growing up memories. Through the years we have stayed in touch, as much as possible, dealing with everyday trials as we go along. Just wanted to let you know that, until daddy's last days. You were always in his prayers...and I bet even now. God Bless you, Love you, (and I sign brothers and sisters names knowing they would want me to.) “ Big Danny, you were like a father figure to me! I remember the times at your house on Reed St. playing darts, and throwing horseshoes, and you never turned our crew away, always told us "If your gonna do, don't over do it." Thank You, Give Lil Danny a hug for me, and may you R.I.P!

“ To the najar family - my deepest sympathies go to you. I have known Danny just about all my life. When we were in elementary school through marriage and Danny was always a good, nice person and a good father. We had a lot of fun when we spent time together like going to picnics, parties, going to each other's houses, and so on. Frances, take care and may God bless you and Danny's family.
