Daniel lead an adventurous life and dove right into whatever he was doing. Daniel loved the outdoors and had an affinity for the West Coast. He was many things to many people and to those closest to him it was an inspiration to see him operate and smoothly transition to and from his many roles. He was an outdoorsman and an avid hunter. He was a marksman and a trick shot. He was a patriot and a veteran who proudly served our country during the Vietnam War. He was an inventor and a machinist who turned his garage into the chile roast master laboratory. He was a farmer and an engineer who could work the field just as well as he could the drafting table. He was a jokester a storyteller and a prankster who love to share a laugh. He was a musician and a singer who could really cut a rug. He was a teacher and a guide but most importantly a hero for his babies. He lives on in the traditions we carry and the many roles we play. He taught us how to be strong-willed and hard-working, which is the Reyes way.

We love you, Dad.

The family would like to express their gratitude to ENMMC, especially to Dr. Jason Pope, ENT Dr. Michael Mitchell, Dr. Anna Arnett, SLP Kim Perez, and Kindred Heart Hospice.
