To my beloved loved ones who are hurting during this difficult time, know that David is now in a better place and is no longer suffering or in pain. Our Beloved David is with our Heavenly Father and all of our other Beloved Loved ones who have been called back home by Our Heavenly Father to be with him. David is now at peace and is one of our Guardian Angels praying for us and has forgiven us and knows you will one sweet day forgive him if you haven't already. David, Rick and my sisters grew up together raised by our Grandmo, Grandpo and my Tia Rose. We are all blessed to be blood and are honored to have had the blessing of David's presence in our lives. May he rest in peace and find the joy he so deserves in Heaven. Debra
