“ My dad...you were the best dad to me, even in our "tough times" I wouldn't have traded it for the world, I just wish there was more time so I could have told you how much I loved you and how much you meant to me and your grandkids. You were a very funny man, all my friends remember you as making them laugh. you were very kind, and willing to help anyone you could, and your grandkids will always remember the candy and chickens you tried to give them every time we went to visit. We just have to remind ourselves you are in a much better place now and you are no longer hurting, just up there fishing with vincent having a ball. now you can be our guardian angel...I love you daddy....always and forever....we will see eachother soon....

“ Im sorry to see David go. He was a good man. My dad, Ronnie Madrid, Sr. and David used to work together at Ray Bell a while back. They were good friends. The one thing that stands out to me about David was his sense of humor. He always made me laugh as a little kid. I would see him a lot when I worked at Sears paying on his credit card there, and even then he would make me laugh. My condolences go out to all of his family. Im sorry for your loss. Just remember all the good memories David provided.

“ I was in Army basic training in Ft. Polk LA when I got a call that my father had died. I landed at the Roswell airport and started to walk into town feeling very low at that point in my life. Then David drove up and asked if I needed a ride into town. He took me to my home on South Elm and I made the rosary in time. I will always remember his kindness. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

“ David, we sat next to each other when we graduated from Roswell High and have been in contact throughout our lives ever since. I remember going with you and the wives to hear you play in Artesia many times when I was on leave from the Air Force. Just saw you a couple of years ago in Traverse City, MI. It was good to see you. I will always remember you as in your picture, always smiling. Orale vato, hasta que nos veamos otra vez. I'll bring the beer and naked women.
