

Della G. Lopez

April 26, 1940 - May 28, 2013

Della was born on April 26, 1940 to Pedro and Josefita (Sanchez) Garcia in Roswell, NM. She was a lifelong resident of Roswell and a member of St. John's Catholic Church. She enjoyed riding with her husband, Fred his "motorcycle mama" on their motorcycle excursions and taking care of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She also loved going to eat with her family and spending time at Wal-Mart and being out and about. She will greatly be missed.

Della is survived by her husband, Fred Lopez of the family home; her daughter, Rose Marie Acosta of Roswell; her grandchildren, Ismael Andazola of Roswell and Priscilla Ramirez and her husband, George of Roswell; her great-grandchildren, Elias Andazola, Christopher Servantez, Esperanza Ramirez, George Ramirez, Jr. and Destiny Rose Ramirez of Roswell; her brothers are honorary pallbearers (some); her sister, Frances and Louis "Louie" Fierro.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Pedro and Josefita Lopez, her sister, Maria Juanita "Jenny" Garcia Loya, her brother, Danny Garcia and son-in-law, Francisco Acosta.

Honorary pallbearers will be Henry Garcia and his wife, Bertha of Alamogordo, Richard Garcia and his wife, Candy of Roswell, Rocky Garcia of Carlsbad, Orlando Garcia of California, Leo Lopez, Manuel Lopez and George Ramirez.

“Grandma”

How can I live without

How can I carry on

When you're the reason I had to live for and now you're gone.

You held me up when I was weak

there wasn't a day we didn't speak

You picked me up when I was down

don't know where I'd be if you weren't around. You taught me so much, wish I could still feel your touch. There's not a minute that goes by that I don't think of you and cry. I know your dancing up above just know you'll always have my love. I Love you “Grandma” then now and always we couldn't ask for a better angel.
