“ I remember Denice fondly from the Ranch House in Fairfax when I worked there in the late 70's. She was great to work for and we had fun watching the Redskins games at Fox and Hounds. She was good to me even though I had just moved from Dallas and was a Cowboys Fan. Rest in Peace Denice.

“ We grew up in the "hood", Denice was like a sister to me and my family, she worked with my mom, Evelyn Hawes at Drug Fair. Like so many other friends we get disconnected doing our adult thing, she moved to NM and I remain in Virginia. We had lots of fun times at Oxen Hill VFD, and then afterwards at Margie's or someone's home...sometimes mine for blueberry pancakes! Loved this girl, sorry I didn't do better, keeping in touch...Life lesson

“ I wroked for Denice at the Laurel, Oxon Hill and Woodbridge Ranch House locations. So that shows that I've known her for a long time. Wish we would have kept in touch thorough all those years, it was about 6 years ago we found each other on FB. RIP Denice. Pat (Marx) Rivera
