

Dolores Castillo

November 14, 1939 - June 30, 2016

Dolores Castillo, entered Heaven's Gates on Thursday, June 30, 2016, at the age of 76. She was born on November 14, 1939, in Fort Davis, Texas, to Guadalupe Ornelas and Julia (Duran) Ornelas where she was raised before moving to Roswell, New Mexico.

Taking care of others came natural for Dolores. She worked tirelessly for over twenty years for a Home Health Provider, as a caregiver. There hasn't been a time in her life she went without seeing to the needs of others. Being a nurturer, she was always surrounded by family, especially her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Caring for them was the most important part of her life. She could frequently be found in her kitchen delightfully cooking for them. One of her favorite pastimes was dancing. If Dolores wasn't playing or dancing with her grandchildren she was watching her favorite sport, especially her favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys. Some might say she was their biggest fan, cheering them on win or lose.

Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, Guadalupe Ornelas and Julia (Duran) Ornelas; her son, Javier Ornelas, Sr. and numerous brothers and sisters.

Dolores was the last original member of her family, but her heritage will be carried on by two daughters and three sons, who remain to cherish her memory. Teresa Hemphill and husband, Anthony of Seminole, TX; Jamie Rene Mendoza of Roswell, NM.; Lorenzo Mendoza and wife, Irene of Wylie, TX., Rene Lujan and wife, Joliza of Roswell, NM., and James Ornelas of Roswell, NM. She is also survived by eleven grandchildren, as well as twelve great-grandchildren.

A Memorial Service will be held Saturday, November 12, 2016, 1:00 PM, at Calvary Funeral Home in Hobbs, New Mexico.
