“ When I was a teenager, I spent much of my time at the Morris house. They treated me like one of the kids. I always felt loved there. I'll always cherish those memories. Even though Don's not on earth anymore, it's a great comfort knowing he's with God now.

“ Don was my brother-in-law for 17 years. He was one of the most godly men I ever knew. He would do anything for you. I enjoyed all the time I spent with him. He was a man I could talk to because we had lots of things in common. I loved his family as well, particularly his daughter, Lori, who went on several trips with us. He will be missed by all in this life. We can rejoice knowing that he will have eternal life in heaven. May the lord continue to bless his sweet family here on earth.
