“ *Lauren,
Phelps told me the sad news today. I have been out of town. I can't even begin to know how you feel, yet I know you would not have wanted him to suffer any longer. I wish we would have meet you two sooner... I hope you find comfort in you friends and family ~ You are loved and Don will be greatly missed.
We are here for you.

“ Lauren, I cant imagine what you are feeling right now. I know that ever since high school you and Don were meant to be. I'm sure at the end he was at his happiest knowing you were the one taking care of him and loved him unconditionally. I hope it comforts you knowing he is at peace now. RIP Don you were loved and missed by the best.

“ Dear Don,
From the moment I met you and Lauren, you opened your doors to me and Eric. You fed us, laughed with us and made me feel welcome in this new place. Sitting on the front porch with you both will always be a wonderful memory. You are loved and missed and will be forever. Thank you for letting me be a part of your life.

“ Don,

Thank you for making my aunt so happy, you brought so much joy to her life and I will forever be grateful for that. You were such a great addition to our family, and loved by so many. You are now pain free and in God's arms, and I promise to look after Aunt Lauren and Shaw. Love you!

Love,
Amanda

“ Don, you made an impact from the minute we met! We really enjoyed your friendship for the relatively short time we knew you. Patty and I could count on you, no matter what the plans were. You are truly missed. Enjoy the endless bike rides, rounds of golf, and Cuban cigars. We love you!

“ Don, you were my big brother. As a kid, I wanted to be like you, and I know that got annoying when I hung out with you. Over the years, we drifted apart, different paths, different states and rarely spoke. Now you are gone, and those few phone calls are over. Those 2 1/2 weeks we spent together in August will live in my memories forever, and by extension, so will you. I love you Brother.....David

Dave, Brotherly love never dies, it goes on forever and ever. I'm sure Don felt the same way. You spent quality time with him towards the end, keep those memories close to your heart as I'm sure Don took them in his. My thoughts are with you and your parents always.

Lauren,

I was so sorry to hear about Dons passing and then again I felt relived for you and Don. Your mom kept me informed on how you both were doing. It's a tragic thing to lose someone that you loved so much but God called him home for a reason, and someday you will know what that reason was. His suffering is over and he is in heaven...probably putting out fires! Just remember God is close to the brokenhearted...He will get you through this. You may not feel this now but someday you will. You did everything you could for Don and he was a lucky man to have you for his wife. Just hold on to Gods promises...you will see Don again someday and when that day comes he will be waiting for you with open arms.

Love, Mrs. Crismond
