

Donald Geddes

December 10, 1925 - December 9, 2015

Donald G. Geddes, 89, passed away on December 9, 2015. He was born on December 10, 1925, to Les Geddes and Lena Williams, in Coatsworth, Ontario, Canada.

He retired after working forty years as an oilman. Donald spent thirteen years with Navajo refinery and over twenty years in South America during this time. Donald loved spending time playing golf, hockey, fishing, and hunting. He swam in the Panama Canal until hearing the crocodiles were swimming with him. After finding this out, Donald never put his foot in the canal again. His other passion was traveling.

Preceding Donald in death were his parents, Les and Lena Geddes; and stepson, Robert Towner.

Those left to carry on his heritage are his wife, Shirley, of the home; daughter, Jill Geddes and son, Gary Geddes, both of Bremington, WA; step-daughter, Malinda Wheelis, of Albuquerque, NM; grandsons: Brent Wheelis, of Albuquerque, NM and Jeremy Wheelis, of Bremington, WA; and granddaughter, Jennifer Campbell, of Clovis, NM. Also surviving Donald are three great-granddaughters.

At Donald's request, there will not be a service.

The family would like to especially thank Anita and Margaret for the special care they gave Donald..

Tribute Wall

“ Donald Geddes

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM