“ My husband and I didn't know him personally but we saw him nearly every day as he bicycled by our house on his way for an afternoon meal. It was obvious he was elderly but to see him make it up the hill by DeBremmond was astounding and inspirational. He was a force to be reckoned with. We're sorry to hear of his passing but are thankful we "knew" him in a small way. Our sympathies to all of his loved ones.
