

Donald Quesenberry

January 26, 1929 - May 22, 2015

Donald E. Quesenberry, 86, passed away on May 22, 2015, in Roswell, NM. He was born on January 26, 1929, in Moore, OK, to Lloyd Quesenberry and Maye Whisininant.

After serving in the Air Force for four years, Donald began his career as the owner of Big O Tires, in Roswell and Clovis, until he retired in the early 1990's. Donald would meet his special friend, Les Walker, every afternoon at Denny's for coffee and conversation. They were friends for more than 40 years. Donald, a very loving person, was also a member of the Optimist Club. Preceding Donald in death were his first wife, Mable Quesenberry; second wife, Ruth Quesenberry; his parents; brother, Russell Quesenberry and son, Wally Stevenson.

Survivors include his brother, Klel Quesenberry; sister-in-law, Virginia Quesenberry; grandsons, David Stevenson, all of TX and Shane Stevenson; granddaughter, Leona Avent and husband Scott, of Roswell, NM; great-grandsons, Brian Stevenson, and Brent Stevenson and wife Brittany; great-granddaughter, Kara Stevenson; and great-grandson, Caleb Stevenson all of TX. Also left to carry on his legacy are seven great-great-grandchildren.

A viewing is scheduled for Tuesday, May 26, 2015, 3:00-8:00 PM, at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home. Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, May 27, 2015, 11:00 AM, at South Park Cemetery. Pastor Rick Rapp will officiate.

“ Uncle Don was one of the special guys. At no time did I ever hear anyone say a thing bad about him, which is not that strange considering the fact that he was a true gentleman. He would always do anything for anyone because that's the kind of man he was. I have nothing but good memories of Uncle Don, and his memory will always be so special., I even have some home movies of Uncle Don and Aunt Mable. I will always love Uncle Don.
