My Beautiful Sister

Love Doris J.

I will miss you every day because we share a special bond. I will always remember how we played in the yard. You were always the leader, and I would always follow. Now I will remember you in such a special way, knowing someday I will follow you for the last time, so wait for me in heaven, and we will play again as sisters always do. Rest in peace, my sister; we will meet and play again in heaven's beautiful yard.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her husbands: L.T. Sandles and Hardey Brown; parents: Frank Robinson and Donnie Odessa Sheppard; brothers: Bennie, Edward, Ernest, Elroy, twins Robert D. and Booker T. Robinson; sister, Retta Mae Carrington.
