

Douglas Edward Annis

February 25, 1993 - December 6, 2019

Obituary for Douglas Edward Annis.

It is with great sadness that the family of DOUGLAS EDWARD Annis announce his passing on Friday, December 6, 2019. Honoring his memory, there will be no service. Celebrate Douglas' life by visiting www.andersonbethany.com to offer a memory or expression of sympathy for his family.

On February 25, 1993, Douglas was born to Donald Annis and Samantha Loveless in West Jordan, Utah. He worked as a pin chaser at Center City Bowling Lanes in Roswell, NM. Douglas enjoyed BMX sports, riding, knife throwing, fishing, and playing video games with his family. He loved cooking, dancing with his mother, range shooting with his uncle Aaron, and spending time with his nieces and nephews. Soccer was his favorite sport. His family and friends will profoundly miss Douglas.

Those left to eternally treasure and cherish memories of Douglas are his fiancé, Makayla Stuffellbeam; parents, Samantha and LeRoy Loveless; grandparents: Kaye and Douglas Hancock; siblings: Autumn, Tommy (Abby), Brandon (Oundray), Virginia (Jason), Felicia (Nethaniel), Kori, Tiera, Chris, Megan, George, Jordann, Jason; twelve aunts and uncles; twenty-six nieces and nephews; loving pets: Cricket, Bellatrix, Bear, Padfoot; close friends: Thomas (Jennifer), Stephanie, John, Andy, Zachaery, Grace.

PRECEDED: Preceding Douglas in death were his grandparents: Ed and Nancy Annis; great-grandparents: Lloyd and Mary Wright; and uncle, Earl Loveless.

“ I knew Doug through the Center City Bowling Alley. He was always working so hard for our league setting up pins and making sure everything was ready for us. I could tell he was a hard worker and was dedicated to what he did. He was always kind to me and had a kind spirit. It breaks my heart to know he’s gone so soon, but even the little things he did are remembered. Praying for family and friends during this unimaginable time
