Obituary for E. J. "Floyd" Argenbright

E. J. "Floyd" Argenbright was born on Nov. 28, 1927 in Dike, Texas to Ed Argenbright and Allie Alton Argenbright and passed to be with the Lord Wednesday, Dec. 12, 2007, in Albuquerque, NM. He lived a long a beautiful life of eighty years.

Floyd and the love of his life, Beatrice Klein, were married Feb. 28, 1953 in Juarez, Mexico; they were married for over fifty-five years. Beatrice survives Floyd at the family home. Floyd owned and operated A & B Exxon Station and Garage. He was an avid fisherman and hunter who enjoyed being out of doors. Floyd was a great man, friend, husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was known to some as "Papa". Floyd was a strong man who never let anything get him down. Up until his last breaths he had smiles and jokes to share. All who knew him loved him.

Floyd was preceded in death by his parents, Ed and Allie Argenbright, and a daughter, Dawn Lorraine Argenbright Perry.

“ *I Had the great pleasure to work for Floyd, it was at the Texaco station on West Second St. in Roswell back in the late 70's. The things he taught me a bout customer service I sill use today and pass on to my employees.
God Bless You.*
