A Letter To My Angel Baby

You were but a tiny baby,
no more than just a flutter.
You filled my heart with glowing joy,
and I love you like no other.
I long to cradle you in my arms
and sing you a lullaby.
Kiss those soft and rosy cheeks,
comfort you as you cry.
In just weeks God called you home,
leaving my sad heart warm.
He loved you most of all,
and brought you home to Jesus' arms.
You were so precious, as perfect can be,
too beautiful for earth.
You stayed with me for just a moment,
then unto heaven, an angel I gave birth.
My love for you is everlasting,
as you're in my heart with me.
And now and forever,
my baby you will be.
