“ Rest In Peace Eley, we love and miss you more than anyone knows. Grateful to get to finally bring you home. You were so good to me and my boys, they love their Grandma. You were a fierce sole, a beautiful, loving person. My kids don't know a life without you, you have been there for everyone that accepted and took in the love and knowledge you always loved to share. I miss your phone calls, I miss your laugh and smile. Ill forever miss talking football with you, Go Pack Go. You were so very special, and I love you always ❤️

“ I know you are at peace our last visit a couple months ago we talked about things I hope your afterlife is everything and more that you could ever have wanted and imagined you deserve it you have always been so kind to me and to Louis over the last 25 yrs. You've watched my kids grow over the years on Facebook and was always showed us love. I am comforted by the thoughts of you in your paradise , walking running, dancing and watching the GreenBay Packers up close in personal front row seats 🤔💚💛 love you Eli fly high 🙌👉
🌹👉🙌 love Tanya & Louis & boys
