Elida's heart was for service, and her life was dedicated to being the best woman for her partner, family, church, and community.

Prior to retirement, Elida worked as a Teacher's Aide for the Roswell Independent School District. She had previously worked for the Motor Vehicle Department as well. Elida loved her bingo, casino, music, and dancing. She was a woman with many interests and talents that include sewing, reading, writing poetry, baking, needlepoint, and quilting. Elida had a big heart for stray animals, and she would rescue them.

Elida's greatest joy in life was spending time and making memories with her

“ To my Tia Lydia from your niece Diane I will always remember all the nights I would spend the night at your house as a little girl with my cousins. U never said no, u always welcomed me with open arms. No telling how many nights we kept you up giggling and running around your house doing travesuras. I remember I was about nine or 10 years old and you were the first to teach me how to play bingo and from then on would take me to bingo games with you and Grandma. I remember winning the blackout one time and you were so excited screaming and yelling and hugging and kissing me. I felt so happy that I made you proud that I won. I can still picture you in my mid-teens sitting at the bleachers during softball season with my mom taking score down for our team . The both of you eating your big cups of ice and munching on your sunflower seeds. You would always make me laugh, I can hear you screaming at my cousin Sandra when she would go up to bat "come on sugar Love show them what you can do!!"you always had a special way of showing your nieces and nephew how much you loved us. I still have the homemade quinceanera book that you sewed the fabric of our dresses on the photo album cover and inserted photos you took that day of my quinceanera. And beautiful porcelain doll you made a replica of me that u gave me at the church that I still have on my shelf that I will always be grateful for. I'm 39 years old now and it holds good memories of you and our family. I will always Love You and remember all the good memories we had together. I wish I could have told you goodbye face-to-face I would have said so many things to you, but things happen for a reason, life is so fragile it can be taken from us at any time. Your sudden passing has taught me that every minute every day that goes by is closer to our death and has made me realize I need to not take my family for granted because I never will know when will be the last time I see them or talk to them. I thank you for opening eyes. I'll miss you and love you ...With all my heart and soul your niece Diane Ramirez Lucero, Mike Lucero husband, Michael Angelo "Mikey" Lucero great nephew. Abq NM
