Obituary for Betty L. Butler

Betty L Butler, 75, passed away on March 27, 2016. She was born August 13,, 1940, to Ted and Bonnie Kellogg in Stigler, Oklahoma. Betty went to school and graduated from Poteau High School. Soon after graduating, she moved to Roswell, New Mexico, where she met and married James F Butler on March 25, 1962. Born from this union were four children: James D Butler, Robin E Butler, John L Butler, and Bonnie R Butler.

Preceding Betty in death are her husband, James F Butler and sister, Helen Birchfield.

Those left to cherish Betty's memory are her brother, Carol Kellogg of Howe, Oklahoma, all her children: James, Robin, John, Bonnie; and a grandson, Keagan L Butler, all of Roswell, New Mexico.

In life Betty was a loving wife of 51 years, mother, homemaker and licensed cosmetologist for over 30 years. She was an avid reader, preferring historical fiction and a self-described "throw cook." She never had to use a recipe. An all around excellent cook. She always made sure her children had every opportunity to roam and experience life. That freedom she gave them has provided them confidence to meet everything this world dishes out. They never doubted that she loved them deeply and her own faith and determination kept them all safe.

A graveside service at South Park Cemetery will take place on March 31, 2016, at 10:00 AM officiated by Robert Bowles, Pastor of the Eastside Church of Christ at Dexter, New Mexico.

Obituary lovingly written by Betty's family.
