“ Cheryl Hughes was my NMMI swimming buddy, during the noon hour adult swim. She looked out for me and I watched for her steady arms breaking the surface of the lane closest to the deep water section. Her stories of Sr. Olympics were quite impressive, and then she'd tell me about her pecan trees and the care they took - which she managed to do. We had nice talks while getting dressed, following the warm showers to take the chill off from the water. After my retirement from The City I worked at the Athletic Center Front Desk and was able to keep her informed of weird closing times and/or when we didn't have a lifeguard, so she wouldn't make the effort to get there only to be disappointed. I have and will continue to miss her.
