

Ella Cordellia Lynch

March 30, 1944 - February 21, 2015

Ella Cordellia “Dee Dea” Lynch, 70, passed away February 21, 2015, at her home in Roswell, NM. She was born March 30, 1944, in Odessa, TX.

Before retiring, Ella was manager of a restaurant for many years. Previously, she spent a great number of years working as a bartender and a waitress.

Being an accomplished crafter, Ella excelled in crocheting, painting and making porcelain Indian dolls.

Those preceding Ella in death are her parents, Bill and Mable Holladay Smith, and one brother who passed away at birth.

Surviving Ella are sons: Billy Hunt (Roxanne) of Lovington, NM; Richard “Snuffy” (Pauline) Hunt of Roswell, NM; daughters: Patricia Good of Roswell, NM; and Nancy (Steve) of Roswell, NM. Also remaining to carry on Ella’s legacy are two brothers: Greg Childers of CA and Ricky Childers of AZ. Numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren are left to treasure the memories of Ella.

A graveside service will be held at South Park Cemetery on Wednesday, February 25, 2015, at 10:00 AM with Pastor Tim Arlett officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ Ella Cordellia Lynch

December 29, 2022 at 05:26 PM

“ I have so many memories of granny. She was a straight shooter, if you didn't want to hear the truth with no sugar coat, best not ask granny! Loved that about her, and will miss that vibrant spirit. Long live Chihuahuas! ! I bet she has a hundred Chihuahua's on her lap right now! <3

Red - March 04, 2015 at 02:27 PM

“ Nancy I am so sorry to hear of your loss. You are in my thoughts.

Anna Willbanks - February 25, 2015 at 05:32 PM

“ There was three now there is on. You were my best friend for over 40 years. you were the best . you will always be in my heart.

Jan

Jan Watts - February 24, 2015 at 04:20 PM