“ Mrs Alexander was a very special and dynamic woman. She was a beautiful person who touched so many lives. She enjoyed conversing and refluxing the years she managed and accomplished a successful cafe alongside her family. She contributed such devotion and exemplary, expertise to society. She excel with extreme talents and accomplishments involving education and employment. She loved attending church and maintain an eternal bond and close relationship with Jesus Christ. In her younger life she remained faithful and influential with many people in the local community. When she was a young lady, she relocated to California and returned to New Mexico to retire and lived a very long prosperous life. She enjoyed talking with me and my daughters. She was very blessed to see the daily sunrises. She never met a stranger. She was very intelligent and eloquent. She embraced life with zeal and expectantly without complacent. She awaited each day with assurance that she would live erroneously, fluently, lucently, exclusively, and long-lived. I shall forever remember Mrs. Alexander as a friend and legendary soldier. The battle is complete. The candle is extinguished. At the end of the black, dark, tunnel light is alive and illuminating a masterpiece forever lifetime and eternity. Finally, Mrs. Alexander has arrived home.
