An easygoing, funny, smart man, Eloy was a role model to many. His huge heart and bear hugs would lift your spirits when it seemed there was only darkness ahead. Eloy was known by the jokes he would make, he knew many people and could make anyone laugh. He was also known for helping wherever he could with whatever he could. Eloy's kids will remember him for his love and his adventure of life, his singing and dancing and his love of Tejano music. Eloy worked hard for his family, and we are grateful for everything he did for us. "We will carry all those beautiful memories we have of our family time with Daddy and Madre Mia close to our hearts, and we know they are reunited in heaven and will be watching over us. We love you Dad!"

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Eloy during ginning season of 71 and 72. I so enjoyed my time with Eloy. He was always happy and so easy-going. I learned a lot from him during that time. Prayers and condolences Bob Ullery
