“ My sweet brother, growing up with you there was a lot of laughter, joy watching you cut up, dancing, I remember when you where a young boy Mom (grandmother Irene) would cut your pancakes in little squares you would be so excited and you would eat every bit, you loved your breakfast food till your last day. I love you brother so much and I will miss you dearly. It has been 1 month since you went home with the father, gone to soon brother there is not 1 day that passes that I have thought (I wish, may be I should have attended to you more, your health, made sure you had more doctor visits you would still be here with us) but I know that your in Gods hands and God knows all and sees all. RIP my brother Love you and will forever have you in my heart.

“ I've known Elroy for about a year. He loved his wife, kids, his sister Teresa Trish and his family. He was the most polite and respectful person I have ever met. He'd light up seeing his kids happy and when he'd talk about them. His family was everything to him. Couldn't believe he was gone so young and unexpectedly. Very sad and heartbreaking
