In Loving Memory of Enrique Emmanuel Dominguez

February 1, 1986 – June 18, 2026

Enrique Emmanuel Dominguez, age 40, of Roswell, New Mexico, entered into the presence of his Lord and Savior on June 18, 2026, after a courageous battle with multiple sclerosis. Born on February 1, 1986, to Henry Dominguez and Robin Dominguez, Enrique faced life's challenges with determination, faith, and perseverance.

Enrique was known for his strong work ethic and dedication throughout his career in the oil and gas industry, including his work with ConocoPhillips and Schlumberger. He loved creating rap music, driving, sharing stories, and listening to Christian rock music. His larger-than-life personality, humor, and storytelling ability made him unforgettable to those who knew him.

Above all, Enrique loved his three sons, Elijah, Noah, and Daniel Dominguez. They were the joy of his life, and he was proud of each of them. His love for his boys remained steadfast through every season of life, and his legacy will continue through the young men they are becoming.

A devoted Christian, Enrique placed his trust in Jesus Christ and often lived by the words of Proverbs 3:5: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart." His faith sustained him throughout his long battle with multiple sclerosis and gave him hope and strength in the face of adversity.

Enrique was preceded in death by his grandmother, Edith Arvizu; his grandparents, Bonifacio and Josephine Dominguez; his aunts, Irma Meza,

Yvonne Canales, and Kathy Vigil; and his beloved godmother, Anita Salazar. He is survived by his parents, Henry Dominguez and Robin Arvizu Barrett; his former wife, Julie Dominguez-Dunn; his beloved sons, Elijah, Noah, and Daniel Dominguez; his brother-in-law, Timmy Allen Emerson; his sister, Zana Michelle Emerson ("Shell Bell"); his nieces, Makayla Baker and husband Kevin Baker, and Samantha Cude and husband Josh Cude; his nephews and nieces, Taylor Emerson, Lacey Emerson, Tristan Emerson, and Faith Emerson; his grandniece, Tatum Cude; his great-nephew, Trey Emerson; soon-to-arrive Trevor Emerson; and many extended family members and friends who will cherish his memory.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.”

— Proverbs 3:5
