

Esther Derwin

September 23, 1920 - July 27, 2015

Esther Derwin, 94, a resident of Roswell for 36 years, passed away peacefully on Monday, July 27, 2015.

She had an engaging smile and a warm, gentle nature that attracted people to her. Esther's friendly spirit brightened every room; she gave peace, comfort, love, and laughter to every one. People often remarked that she was the sweetest person they ever knew.

Esther enjoyed watching birds, sunsets, and the beautiful New Mexico skies. She especially loved cats and watching animal shows. She was a gifted cook and left behind a cherished collection of recipes.

Preceding Esther in death were her husband, Hyman; two sisters, Rose and Sarah; and two brothers, Jesse and Ziggy.

Survived by her two adoring sons and their spouses, Ron (Barbara) of California, and Jeffrey (Sandra) of New Jersey, two grandchildren, Aaron and David; several nieces and nephews; and many friends.

Esther will be forever remembered and deeply missed.

No services are planned.
