Daddy's Poem
From His throne way up high,
The Lord looks down from the sky.
He sees his loved one and calls him home
To never more, forever roam.
Always happy and full of cheer,
upon This Earth, way down here.
Upon the wings of angels he now soars,
Past the universe, to heavens doors.
His work here upon this earth is done,
Now he stands with the Holy One.
He's now in Heaven
Dancing on the streets of gold,
With the love of his life,
Forever young, and no longer old.

“ Daddy here it is July 21st 2023 I still miss you so much. Now you have your loving daughter Sandra to come be with you in heavens golden gates. I would love to be selfish and still have her here with me. But I know when it is our time God knows what us best.

“ The obituary said to share your thoughts and memories with the family..so here are mine. Gene Graham will always have a special place in my memories. I remember so fondly the fishing and hunting trips, the trips to oil rigs. As I've heard him say many times "I was not raised...I just grew up". Yet he raised his kids with total impartiality, and taught us all to appreciate the simple things in life; to stay true to GOD, Family and Country. Though small of stature, his heart was big. He taught us how to forgive. To all the Graham Family, may GOD send you comfort as you grieve, and know that we are praying for you.

“ Im sorry for your loss. He was a very nice man. Had nice time talking to him at bingo. He could always make you laugh. He always had a smile on his face.He would tell me to let him win then he would laugh about it. He is somebody you will never forget about. .
