A tribute of Eugenio's life may be found at www.andersonbethany.com where you may leave memories and expressions of sympathy for his family.

On October 28, 1966, Eugenio was born to Asenzion Ortiz and Agustina Najera in Zaragoza, Chihuahua, México. Eugenio was known as Gino by family and friends. Gino worked at Sam's Club and liked his job very much. The 49ers were his favorite football team. He enjoyed parties and was always the life of the party. Perhaps more than anything, Gino loved spending time with family and friends. Having a loving and generous heart, he was one who was always there to help others when needed. Gino had a beautiful smile and warm personality that made others smile.

Those left to cherish Eugenio's memory are his loving mother, Agustina Najera; stepfather, Miguel Najera; sisters: Maria Elena Ortiz, Maribel Urquides, Linda Ortiz (Robert Herrera), Sandra Ortiz, Debbie Ortiz (Andres Cano); grandmother, Margarita Juarez; and numerous nephews, nieces, great-nephews, and great-nieces, that will always love and cherish the memories he has left behind.

Eugenio was preceded in death by his father, Asencion Ortiz; grandfather,

Antonio Juarez; brother, Asencion 'Chonito' Ortiz.

Although Gino is no longer with us, his memory will live on with his family and all the friends left behind.

Easy come, and easy go

It's very hard to let you go

Don't think I won't remember

Because I will never forget

It was hard to see you in that bed

The look of sadness and my dread

But you looked so peaceful, I will admit

You thought you were strong

We knew you were

But it got you

It took you over

It ate you alive

Until, there was not a single breath

It took them all,

Not a single one left

You were so weak

We kept you strong,

So we thought,

But we were wrong

We love you and miss you

We wish you were here

But we can have only memories

And don't you think I won't remember

Because I,

I will never forget.

“ Gino my buddy my friend. When you can to me about a job I was excited to bring you into our family at Sams Club. From that day forward you became my buddy and partner in crime. You had so much kindness and compassion. You were the first to step up to those who needed you. Eating cup of soups and sharing stories. I will miss your beautiful white smile, all your basketball shirts and new shoes. I love you so much my buddy and will miss you forever and ever.
