"Ez," to most, was born in Roswell, New Mexico, on August 24, 1998. He attended Roswell High School, for whom he ran cross country and track. Ez graduated in the class of 2016. He will be forever remembered for his contagious smile, good nature and his genuine concern for people. Ez would always ask about your day, your family, your health. He never met a stranger, everyone who saw him at Wal-Mart knew how caring he really was: a good friend, an even better brother.

He loved his family deeply and was always looking for a way to make himself helpful, and forever thankful for everything and everyone in his life. Ez's bear hugs were legendary, never half done. Even if he had to stand beside you, he would never leave without his hug. He was great with kids. If you had a child, no matter how old, Ez would turn them into an airplane or his personal squeeze ball. One of his greatest passions was music, he loved anything and everything.

Preceded: Ez is preceded in death by his great grandmother, Margie C. Linares.

Survivors: Surviving to cherish Ez's memory are his parents: Pablo & Veronica Garcia, Ronda Belton; brothers: Jeremiah Harriston, Felipe Garcia, Malachi Belton, Pablo Garcia; grandparents: Lori and Phil Huerta, Manuel Garcia, Nancy and Alvino Herrera, Hector and Elva Alonso, Doria and Frank Betts; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Pallbearers: Chosen to serve as Pallbearers will be Jose Flores, Stefane Linares, Jr Betts, Mark Salas, Hector Alonso, and Damian Leyba.

Honorary Pallbearers: Chosen as Honorary Pallbearers are Chris Walker, Aleecia Garcia, Monica Alonso, Rooney Garza, Cristal Gomez, Edward Alonso, Samuel Jimenez, Sonja Romero, Christina Belton and Angela Cobb.

Memorials: Floral arrangements may be sent to St. John the Baptist Catholic Church or Anderson Bethany Funeral Home by 9:00 AM, Tuesday, November 26, 2018, c/o Garcia Family

Ez's tribute was lovingly written in his honor by his family.

“ I will and do miss mijo so much, I always looked around to see if I caught a glimpse of Ezekeial at Walmart so I could say hi. He never hesitated to come tell me hello or give me a hug. Sometimes he'd catch me by surprise and startle me and then we'd both laugh. Such an amazing young man. The Lord has much more special plans for him and though he is missed, we know he is in a much better place with the Lord.
Love and prayers for the family.

“ I will forever hold a found memory of the first time I met Ezzy, he was so full of life, funny, and very willing to share his life story with myself and my husband, he always showed great respects for others, and never did I see him sad, I loved seeing him in the hallways and lunch room at RHS, and was always willing to hold a door open for my student who was in a wheelchair, and myself when ever he had the chance to do so, I really loved this young man, and he was very proud of his family and showed much love for them every time he spoke of them to me... Heaven has gained such a great Angle.. RIP Ezzy love you sweetheart.

♥ Dear Ezekeial,

You created your own tribute. What do I mean by that?

Well, I first met you, Felipe, Pablo, and your mama Vero, you were on a baseball team. That's when we took Nana to go visit with you all.

You three were just the cutest kids, you were all excited to show uncle rick, Nana & me what you all could do. You weren't shy, and you had just met us. That was a real fun visit.

Then the next time I saw you, it was at Nana's house when you went to visit her. You & the boys were a little shy (you hadn't seen us for a long time), which was natural. That was another real fun visit, but it was too short.

The last time I saw you was when Nana passed away. You boys had really grown in that short time. That was a solemn visit. Although it was a solemn time, it was real nice to see you.

And now, I'll only get to see you in pictures. The good thing about it is, that they're great pictures, from the time you were a baby, till just before your life was ended so shortly.

This is only my story, you touched so many people with your sweet self. That is the tribute you created and lived.

Thank you for allowing me & uncle Rick to be part of your life. We love you, and will forever miss you. 🙏🌿🌹❤️😔
