“ I loved Ezequiel as I know he loved me. He made everyone who came into contact with him feel that they were the most important person to him at that moment. He was a very loving man who adored his family and friends. He never looked down at anyone but instead tried to raise them up. He loved serving his fellowman and was eager to help whenever he was able. He radiated warmth to everyone in his life. He inspired to be a better brother to everyone. He will be greatly missed with his BIG smile and HUGE heart. But, I know he is now looking down at all of us from heaven and whispering in our ears words of encouragement and strength. He is at the Gates of Heaven as he meet all the Works of Mercy - He visited the sick, He feed the hungry, He visited the prisoner, He helped the homeless and He clothed the naked. Now, he is giggling as his wings are placed on him to continue his divine work in Heaven and to watch over us here on earth.
