“Mom” to some, “grandma and great grandma” to others. How can we forget her classy style and beautiful smile; home-cooked meals and shoes with a low heel. For many years, Bea resided in Roswell, NM and Arizona. She and her husband retired to Lovington, NM in 1976 where Bea worked for her Shamrock Café and her favorites dress shop of all times, “Beverley’s Dress Shop”. In 1997, she moved back to the place she liked to call home, Roswell. The last two years of Bea’s life were spent with her younger daughter and family in Odessa, Texas.

Bea was a member of Washington Avenue Fellowship and was a hard worker and loved all of her family. She will be dearly missed and leaves behind a beautiful legacy. Precious memories will remain with us all until we rejoice with her again in heaven.

Bea is survived by daughters, Bea Meadows and her husband, Ralph, of Roswell and Joyce Griffith and her husband, James D., of Odessa, TX;

“ Grandma was one of the most loving and caring person that I had ever meet. I loved all the long talks I had at grandmas house. Another thing I remeber is how much she loved riding on the boat with us this last summer. She was so happy with us all in Odessa. She will be greatly missed and we will always love her until the day that we are in heaven with us.
