

Flavio Garcia

May 12, 1985 - September 14, 2025

Flavio Garcia, 40, of Roswell, New Mexico, passed away at Eastern New Mexico in Roswell on September 15, 2025.

Flavio left an impression everywhere he went. He was an avid welder who took pride in his craft, always finding ways to turn hard work into something meaningful. When he wasn't working, you could find him fishing—one of his favorite ways to relax and spend time with the people he loved most. His greatest joy came from the time he shared with family and friends, and his loyalty and love will never be forgotten.

Family was everything to Flavio. He was a devoted son to his parents, Tony Garcia and Maria Serrano, a proud brother to Tony Jr., Félix, Terrance, Teresa, Belinda, Nakita, and Anna, and a caring uncle to his nieces and nephews. Flavio's laughter and big heart will be deeply missed.

Services to honor and celebrate Flavio's life will be held on Wednesday, September 17, 2025. A viewing will be held at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home in Roswell, New Mexico, from 9:00 AM to 12:45 PM. The Holy rosary will be recited at 1:30 PM at St. John's Catholic Church, with a funeral mass to begin 2:00 PM with an interment to follow at South Park Cemetery.

The Garcia family extends their gratitude for the love, support, and prayers shown during this difficult time.

“ I remember one day we were partying and one of my uncles got into it with Someone. So I told flavio you ready to get down. He said bro I'm in oxygen. But I'll be there for you guys as much as I can. He was a good guy. I called him and Felix my bodyguards
