February 7, 1915 - June 8, 2011

A memorial service for Floyd George, 96, of Roswell will be held Sunday, June 19, 2011, 2:00 pm, at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home with Pastor Jack Ferguson officiating. Floyd was born in McCloud, Oklahoma on February 7, 1915 to David T. George and Laura Bell Lane. His family homesteaded north of Roswell in the 1930's. He married Lola Jewell Griffin August 11, 1941. He worked around Roswell and Mayhill until 1949 when they moved to California until 1959. They brought the family back to Roswell. He worked on Clardy's Farms for many years. After the kids left home, he worked for Roswell Ready Mix until he retired at age 75. Grandpa Floyd was full of Joy, and loved to go hunting, camping, and out with his metal detector looking for arrow heads and Pecos Valley Diamonds. He would take the grandkids out to an irrigation ditch and throw a watermelon in, let them follow to the end, and enjoy together. He loved to play his harmonica while watching his Chihuahua's sing and dance. His biggest thing was teaching the grandbabies how to spit in his spittoon, and to let them try his grapes to see if they were ripe.....he loved the facial expressions as the bitterness set in. He had a green thumb. He grew the most beautiful roses you ever seen and the sweetest apricots that you have ever eat. He was and always will be the rock of the family. Those left behind to cherish his memory are two daughters Helen Cockrum and husband Floyd and Patricia George and fiancé Bobby Stotts both of Roswell; son John George of Brownfield, TX; grandchildren: Brenda Dear of Roswell and her four children and four grandchildren, Ronda Satterfield McClure of Alamogordo
