

Floyd Elmer Hall

November 16, 1926 - February 4, 2018

Floyd Elmer Hall, 91, passed away on Sunday, February 4, 2018. A Memorial Service will be held at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel on Friday, February 9, 2018, 2:00 PM. Celebrate Floyd's life by visiting www.andersonbethany.com to offer a memory or expression of sympathy for his family.

On November 16, 1926, Floyd was born to Louis Everett Hall and Pearl Evelyn Foster Hall in Sedan, NM. He was a man of great love for God and Jesus. Floyd's every thought was about his Christian faith. He was revered and respected by all who knew him. A man, head and shoulders above all other men we have known. Floyd's strength and accomplishments were renowned. He would work like no other. Floyd is greatly loved and will be sorely missed. We will see him soon.

Those left to cherish Floyd's memory are his loving wife, Earline Hall; children: James Hall and wife, Carrie; Anita Drake, Relinda Reeves, Ron Reeves and wife, Trisha; grandchildren: Katelyn Drake, Tamara Coleman, Dan Coleman, Billy and wife, Michelle Drake, Grace Hall, Lilly Hall, Randy Reeves, Tonya Reeves, Keane Reeves; great-grandchildren: Evelyn Drake, McKenna Drake, Emily Drake, Theron Coleman; brother, Earl Hall; many nieces and nephews; and friends: Sue Kizer, James and Freddie Everage.

Preceding Floyd in death were his daughters: Debra Coleman, Regina Reeves; grandson, Joseph Michael Drake; and great-grandson, Braxton Joseph Hill.

Floyd's family lovingly wrote this tribute in his honor.
