

Frances Louise Baker

October 27, 1927 - June 6, 2016

Frances Louise Baker, age 88, of Roswell, passed away from her battle with breast cancer on Monday, June 6, 2016. She was born to the late Clarence and Ola Mae Emerson on October 27, 1927, in Ti Valley, Oklahoma.

Louise graduated from R.A. Long High School in Longview, Washington, in 1946, before marrying H.A. Cade and having one child, William A. (Billy) Cade who was later killed in a tragic car accident in 1950. Louise later married George E. Baker, moving to Fairbanks, Alaska, where she became Assistant Chief Operator at the Alaskan Communications Systems. She gave birth to Gary Baker in June of 1960, and they lived there until mid-1966, when they moved to southern California. They opened a motel outside of Palm Springs, California. In 1974, Louise decided to become a cosmetologist. Later, opening her own salon, Naples Beauty Salon, in Long Beach, California, until her retirement in 1985. In the summer of 1987, they moved to Longview, Washington, where they resided until the fall of 1994, when they decided to move to Roswell, NM, to be closer to their grandchildren. Louise was an avid collector of Blue Willow and other fine china. She loved her politics and was an avid reader.

Louise is survived by her son Gary Baker; her granddaughter, Lauren (Nicholas) Neumann, great-grandchild due in January of 2017 and grandson, Alex Baker all of Roswell, NM. She is also survived by her youngest sister, Shirley Rydberg of Silverdale, WA. Louise has many loved cousins, nieces and nephews. She also leaves behind many caring friends.

A celebration of life will take place Saturday, June 18, 2016, at 11:30 AM at Terrace Heights Memorial Park in Yakima, Washington.

The family would like to thank Anita Marrujo and her staff from Gentiva Hospice and Dr. Paul Whitwam and his marvelous staff, especially Monica Palma, for all of their care and consideration.

The obituary was lovingly written by the family.
