“ I miss you mamma. I remember driving from Roswell and San Jon one day and you told me all about the Roberts family. I remember always being about to get a laugh out of you when I called ... sometimes it was because of the stupidest stuff I did. Minutes before my mom passed she told me on the phone — I love you.... And I'm sorry — don't be sorry about anything mom. I couldn't have asked for a better mom . There's an empty place in my heart. We love you mom
