“ I meet Helen Hatch through Community Bible Study. She is neatest person I have ever meet. I thank God for are friendship. Every time Helen I I saw each other we made each other laugh. If I had a bad day she made it a better one. There were even times when we laugh so hard we could not seat down. May God be with you and your family. Debbie Mills.

“ I wanted to extend my deepest sympathies to your family. I was so very sad to hear of your loss. It is impossible to adequately express my sincere sympathy at this most difficult time. My thoughts are with you at this time. I know how close your family is and how difficult these last few months have been on you all. I can only imagine what you must be going through right now. Even though we are hundreds of miles apart right now, please know that I'm praying for you all. Please let me know whether there is anything I can do to help during this difficult time. May the love of those around you, help you through the days ahead.
Wishing you hope in the mist of sorrow and comfort in the midst of pain,
Jayme Briggs
