“ To Rebecca Borunda and all Anchondo family, my condolences. To Leo Anchondo I would like to express my sincere condolences. Mr. Anchondo was always there to support you as well as myself. Being your second grade teacher, your grandfather was always in visiting the classroom making sure you had completed all your assignments. Attending all school activities and never missed a parent/teacher conference. He always wanted the best for you. I know that you and your family will miss him dearly. Becky, you and all the family are in my prayers. I wish I could be there by your side, unfortunately I out of the state. Hope to see you soon.

“ Sorry to hear about your Dad, Long ago and so clear to me your Mom and dad watched my chi;den and I nicknamed them abuelitos. I only regret not visiting them as often as I should have. The very last time I saw him was Farmer's Country market. He was nice to me and my children, I met him and your mom through Rosa(daughter)around the time Ms saenz and her husband were thinking of moving to Albuquerque. Again my thoughts and prayers with you and your family. Sincerely, Lupe Morales
