“Daddy” The Simple Man with The Heart In the Dark... Dad, I Love You and I will miss you. A Simple Man you were. Never cared much for worldly things, but, instead built beautiful things for the world. You left us the Convictions of your life and the Legacy of your labor. I’m very proud to be your daughter. I know your presence will always be here, as I drive down the road and glance over the “Pecan Orchards.” I will see your tractor planting the seed that now occupies the ground that beautifies Country Club Road. With those pecan trees all in perfect rows where a Simple Man labored in the heat of the day and the cold of winter. As we drove towards Dexter, you would see the beautiful rows of grapes you planted there on the Hinkle Farm and the Simple Man who loyally nurtured them for years. There gone now, But I still remember. Thru the years of your life, you silently did and gave to this community. No one knows your name nor your face... but I, I know, your heart. I know you Loved God and I know you Loved Your Family and I know you wanted Peace and now God has blessed you with that... So continue to watch over us, we still need that... until we meet again. I Love You Your Daughter, -Bea-

“ *Pampo,
Thank you Pampo for opening your arms, and always having a place in your heart for me! Although we didnt share the closest relationship you allowed me to have one, and I will always love, and respect you for that. I promise I will lead by example, and make sure your name lives forever. RIP PAMPO!!!! Love Me*

“ Abuelo,
A life lived of many years and of much given to the world. A life lived of much love given and much love lost. One thing that will not be lost is the love and honor that you bestowed upon us and will continue with the generations to come. Your spirit soars now and your glorious light will brighten our days and illuminate our nights. Though you are not here with us anymore in being, you will forever live in our hearts with love, in our minds with memories and in our lives with spirit. Your spirit will live in all of us till the end of time.
Para Amor por ti, With love for you,
Ana Izquierdo, Amari Izquierdo, Melana Izquierdo, Liam Brace and Myron Brace.
