“ I was your firstborn, and I caused you a bunch of grief and money. with allergies and asthma. You always were a great dad. You taught me to be tough and independent was so may good memories I don't know if I can pock Just one. I remember the time you decided to play doctor with your exactor knife on the bottom of my foot,that had a chunk of wood, and a pillow that you gave me to bite on. Or the great times we all had when you had the slot car races. Man i was good, I could have won a few races if I'd been allowed, but then who would have hooked the crashes and set them up again. I have so many others that it would take a book to write them downy had a pretty good life and I have loved you the whole time,except when I was mad at you. Ha Ha! I'm glad your suffering is over and you can at long last fly on your silver wings at last. I love you Dad and you will always live in my heart. Love you always, Until my time is over and I see you once again.
