*I also never knew Frankie Rowe but I've watched the interview she gave a couple of times.
Every time a president is elected we have a first lady.
Frankie Rowe should be commemorated as the first lady of United States permanently.
Her honesty and bravery shone through like a beacon of light and hope.
The world is a much sadder place without people of the qualities Frankie portrayed.
She epitomised all the qualities that made America great and offered honest people belief in a better world.
My deepest and most sincere condolences are offered to all of Frankie's family.
May you rest in peace!*

“ Frankie was very special, and as long as she served as a greeter, I was always joyfully in touch with her. Still her "little brother " is there in the foyer to remind us of Frankie. God bless you all. Vonnie Goss
