A special thank you to Anderson Bethany with the services that we received and that we would happily recommend the funeral home to other family members and friends when the need arises.

When life ends unexpectedly
The pain is too great to bear,
No chance to say a last goodbye
Unable to prepare.

The bravest thing that we can do Is try to understand
That even though it's very hard For something that wasn't planned
We cannot change what's come to pass
We only can move on.

Our loved one would have wanted that Be strong and face the dawn.
He'll always live within our hearts
Forever by our side.

Take comfort in his memory
Where always he'll abide.

And as we move on with our lives Now knowing what we know.
Tomorrow isn't promised to us
So love we've got to show.

It's all that really matters

It's the only thing at stake

When we end our earthly journey

The love we share, we take...

Let this be a reminder to us that unexpected loss is hard but it's a part of life.

We should let it serve as a reminder that when we have the opportunity to tell someone how much we care about them we should.
