“ I only met Great Aunt Gaye a couple of times and she was always a joy. I apologize that this is so late coming but i just found out by accident almost a year late that she had passed. I will let my mom, "Little Gaye" know also because i don't think she was aware either. My deepest sympathy to you for your loss.

“ I am sure shocked to hear about Gaye. So sorry for your loss. I only met her once when I went to visit grandma Ossie. My grandfather was Justin Roberts. I have been trying to figure out what happened With George and Ossie and why my grandfather was raised by his aunt. Drop a line when you can. Again, so sorry for your loss.

“ It's heart breaking to lose your Mother, but I have to tell you it brought a little smile to my face when I thought of Ira and Gaye being together again. Your family was so blessed to have those two people in your life and we in turn were blessed. We have such fond happy memories of your parents. Love you all and God Bless you.

“ Ms. Gaye was a wonderful neighbor and friend. She loved sitting on her swing and waving at our horses. She was always ready to help when needed. She will missed .
