October 17, 1926 - October 26, 2006

Obituary for George B. Clark Jr.

Memorial services for George B. Clark Jr., 80, of Roswell will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, November 1, 2006, at First United Methodist Church with Rev. Archie Echols officiating. George passed away Thursday, October 26, 2006, at Casa Maria Care Center.

George was born on October 17, 1926 to George Burdette Clark Sr. and Hettie Black Clark in Edinburg, Texas. He and Lovena Rice were married on Dec. 2, 1960. Lovena survives him at the family home. They moved to Roswell from Ruidoso forty-one years ago. He loved football with a passion; was a big animal lover especially cats and dogs; enjoyed spending time with his family; fixing and building things with his hands; and electronics. George was also a proud World War II Veteran.

In addition to his wife, Lovena, George is survived by his son, Burney Clark and his wife, Vicki, of Roswell; sister, Millie Hurley of San Antonio, TX; one sister, Nylene Tipton, of Oklahoma; grandchildren, Anne, and Thomas Clark, Chris Hay and his wife, Suzy, and Wesley Hay and his wife, Julie; great-granddaughters, Jayme Sue, Kaitlin, and Aubrey Hay; and a host of friends. George was preceded in death by an infant son, James Wesley, his step-son, Jim Hay, one sister, Sylvia Lloyd, and his parents.

To sign the register book online go to www.andersonbethany.com In lieu of flowers please make contributions to the Roswell Humane Society.

Services are under the direction of Anderson-Bethany Funeral Home and Crematory.

“ Dearest Burney, We are so sorry for the loss of your dad. I know he was a wonderful father to you and a great man. I know you have many memories of him and will continue to have those of him in the years to come. We love you and your family dearly, you and your mom are in our prayers and thoughts during this time of grief and loss. Please know that He is there to get you through the tough days ahead and He will continue to guide and direct you in your pathway of life. Fall into His arms and allow Him to love you and carry your pain of loss. We love you dearly, Michael, Penny, Stephanie & Bethany Wilson
