

George Jack Zarris

July 22, 1935 - December 15, 2013

George Jack Zarris passed away at his home Saturday, December 14, 2013 surrounded by his loving wife; following, Thanks to God, a short battle with cancer. Funeral services will be held at 10:00 am on Thursday, December 19, 2013 at Anderson Bethany Funeral Home Chapel.

George Jack Zarris was born in Bronx, New York to Jack Zarris and Bessie Zarris, both preceding him in death. His parents moved to Roswell when George was 17 years old. George attended college at Eastern New Mexico University after he graduated in business education he moved to California where he worked at United California Bank for several years. George came back to Roswell when his father was very sick and needed heart surgery. George took care of his father and business in Clovis for many years until his parents retired and sold their business "The Jacks", later George had an Office Supply business, he sold the business when retired in 1993. Later George's Doctor told him he had diabetes and he needed to keep active, it was then that his wife asked him to open a car detail shop in order to keep him active.

George married Doris Saavedra Coronado in 1991. They have two daughters, Bessie Jenifer Haddaway and Isabel Zarris Haddaway.

George and his wife had a good life together, they enjoyed going every two years to Greece and enjoyed parties with uncles, cousins, and several relatives and friends in Greece. George did not miss a Greek party in Albuquerque because he and his wife enjoyed Greek dancing and Latin dancing too. George had a passion for photo cameras, he had a collection of more than 200 antique photo cameras and always carried a camera with him just in case he could take a good photo.
