

Gerard Arnold Norve

September 23, 1935 - March 28, 2014

Funeral services will be held for Gerard Arnold Norve, 78, at 11 AM, Monday, April 7, 2014 at St. Mark's Lutheran Church. He passed away on Friday, March 28, 2014 at St. Anthony Healthcare in Clovis.

Gerard was born in Brooklyn, NY on September 23, 1935, to Edna Smith Norve and Oswald Norve and grew up on Staten Island.

He joined the Air Force and spent four years in Roswell. After that, he moved to Portales and completed his B.S. and Master's Degrees in Accounting at ENMU. He worked as a CPA in Albuquerque, Des Plaines, Illinois, and Los Angeles and San Jose, California. In 1965 he married Nancy Bratton in Albuquerque. After retiring in 2005, he and Nancy moved back to Roswell. He enjoyed traveling around the world and liked to plan trips himself without professional help. He visited Norway many times since his father had been born there and still had relatives there.

Gerard is survived by his wife Nancy, daughters Asta Kristin Durham and her husband Todd of Birmingham AL, and Claudia White of Yuba City, CA and her son Travis Kollmann, his wife Shelia and their children Andy, Samantha and Ryann. He also leaves behind nieces, nephews and cousins.

In lieu of flowers, consider a donation to the Humane Society, the New Mexico

Mental Health Association or a charity of your choice.
