“ Hey Wawo, it's Bel. I can't believe it's been over 13 years since I've last seen and hugged you. I miss you so much. It feels like as more time passes I seem to have fewer memories of you besides the photos or stories I look back on. I was 14 years old when you left and didn't come back just a young teenager that had never experienced death or much of life yet. But here I am 27 years old almost 30 years old and I think wow what a life I have lived in such a short time of life here on earth. I have a 7 year old son, just graduated nursing school, and just celebrated my one year anniversary. Crazy to think that time passes by so quickly. And well we try to enjoy each and every day can't help but wonder how life would be with you around? I know you are always watching over us. I just wish you could be here to celebrate the little things as well as the big things. But I know this is just a short time we have here on Earth and once we are reunited in Heaven with our Heavenly Father we will have eternity together. It's come to the point where I have spent more time on earth without you here then when you were here but regardless I will continue to celebrate your birthday and tell Bentley stories of you. He knows who you are and understands you are in Heaven with Jesus. Can't wait until the day we are all together. I love you and miss you always. ❤️ Your baby sister Bel.

“ Hi Son, I miss you so much you were not just my son you were my man of the house. I miss you being there but at times I feel like you're there with me! I miss when I use to walk in the house from work yo always had my house so clean, so I wouldn't have to do it. It was just like you always thinking of everyone else! I can't wait for the day when it's time for us to reunite in Heaven. Just think we never will be apart when that day comes we will be together forever! I know God and all the angels are enjoying having you around. I now you still smile down at us and you take care of us all from Heaven above. I love you and miss you I hope to see you soon!

“ I know you are where you want to be with no pain or sorrow, I just miss you so much and I wish I could hug and kiss you one last time, but I know that if I had that chance I would never let go of you! Sometimes I see someone that looks just like you, and for that moment I think that its you then it hits me it's not. That has to be the hardest part not being able to hug you or talk to you. I could talk to you about anything, and you would just listen, you were my best friend and I really miss that. I love you WaWo (as Ivan Jr. likes to call you) and there will never be a day that I don't think of you and wish you were here. I know that goes for all of us that love you! As for Ivan, Dad, Rosa, Mom, Belle and the kids they miss you so much, Mom and Dad are so strong for us girls but I know their hearts are broken, you were there only son. And you're nieces and Ivan Jr. lost the only Uncle that they've ever known and as for all of us sisters and Ivan has lost our only brother. I love you little brother and I can't wait for the day when we are reunited, as for now I will continue missing you and thinking of you everyday! I love you so much!

“Gerardo, it's been a whole year since you passed away and it seems like you were just here living with me yesterday. I can remember the last time I said goodbye to you, I was crying cause you moved back with Mom and I remember I hugged and kissed you and told you to be good. I got back in the car and we were going to go back home and I remember thinking to myself I have to get off and say goodbye one last time (and I did) cause my heart was breaking just because I had to leave you in Roswell. Never knowing that would be the last time I saw you. I know God gave me and you our special moment of saying goodbye and I thank God everyday for that!

“Hi Lil Brother, it's me again, you're birthday was just this last Wednesday you would have been 22! We all miss you so so so much, I think it still seems like a dream for most of us, but reality is starting to kick in as days go on and I can't see or talk to you. We all got together for your birthday, it was so hard without you there with us, I know you would be making us all laugh, but I know your celebrating with Our Father in Heaven and having the best time!! HAPPY BIRTHDAY BROTHER, we love and miss you so much. God, hug and kiss him for me! I'll see you in my dreams Lil Brother!!!

“ My Son, you were a good son. You never asked for anything you would always tell me that "I'm good". When you were in pain you never showed us you were in pain you always kept it to yourself. I remember when you cut my hair, you did not put in oil in the clippers, so you pulled my hair from the back and even though it hurt, we just laughed together. You asked me if it hurt, I told you no, but go ahead and put oil on the clippers. You cut my hair too short that day, and you still said I looked good. Mama came out and said look what you did to your dad's hair. I just replied my hair will grow back. When we're reunited I will let you cut my hair again. I love and miss you son!

God, please hug and kiss my brother for me and tell him that I love him with all my heart.

“ Joe & Jane, I very seldom look up info from Roswell because we've been gone so long. However, I was so saddened to hear of Gerardo. He was such a sweet, loving little boy when we moved away. We will keep you and the girls in our prayers during this difficult time. We look back on very fond memories of your family at church and we must hold on to those. You're in our hearts and our prayers. May God's peace sustain you.
