My Last words

I always wondered what I would do if I ever lost both of you.

I still remember when I lost my dad it hurt so bad and really left me sad.

Dad taught me right from wrong and gave his love and now he watches from up above. I miss you dad your son with love.

It's been years God took my father and broke my heart when he came back for mother.

I often visit the place they lay and knew it wasn't where they would stay because God is good and God is love and knew he would take them up above.

Well now I'm old and now I see that someday soon God would come for me. I only hope I go sin free.

So when my name is finally called don't feel so sad and cry for me because they're two Angels who wait for me.

There is one more thing I have to say before they put me down to lay.

I love you Rachael and Amber to that I'll be waiting and be watching you. May God Bless us all your loving Dad.
