Brother, well where do I begin or end as I could write a novel about you? Let me start with this, you taught me so much in life. You did so much with me and then supported me when I did my own things. I loved our softball, hunting, fishing and golf outings and will forever miss those but, my memory lives of the great times we shared.

As I now, once again, say our last good byes, let this be known - as you have always known - I Love You!

“ What I remember most about Gilbert is his love of sports and particularly baseball. He encouraged Patrick and taught him a lot about baseball. Gilbert was a generous man. In spite of difficulties that Life threw at him, he cared deeply for his family.

“ Finding the right words to voice the emotions that Gilbert's passing has caused is impossible. How do you describe perfectly the impact such a complex person can have on soo many people in so many diverse ways? Gilbert's personality was huge. He did everything big, he smiled big, he laughed big, he loved big, he had a big sense of humor and a big opinion he wasn't afraid to voice. He loved his family, he loved his sports and he was my friend and he is going be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out for his family, loved ones and all who will miss him.

“ I went to school with Gilbert... although he was my older brothers age we all grew up in the same neighborhood as friends. Always waved at the softball fields or caught up if we ran into each other at Walmart. Rest In Peace my friend.... prayers surround Kathi, your children, grandchildren and family.
