On October 31, 1943, Gloria Ann Schneider was born to Carvin and Eris Schneider in Mills New Mexico. Her siblings never missed an opportunity over the years to kid her about being born on Halloween. An outstanding student, Gloria graduated Salutatorian of her senior graduating class at Cloudcroft High School in Cloudcroft, New Mexico. Shortly after graduation, Gloria moved to Roswell, New Mexico and then lived in Ruidoso, New Mexico and Lubbock, Texas before returning to Roswell. Gloria worked for the Farmers Home Administration and as a medical transcriptionist before she retired.

Gloria had a quiet personality, was a Christian and had a deep passion for horses. She loved riding and going to horse races and had pictures and small statues of horses throughout her house. She also loved dogs and lost her two little dogs, Elmo and Lucky, to old age earlier this year. They were her loved companions for many years.

Preceding Gloria in death were her parents, Carvin and Eris Schneider; her brother, Ronald Schneider.

Surviving Gloria are her two sisters: Beverly Kuykendall of New Market Alabama, and Kathryn (Patty) Smith of Dallas Texas, who will greatly miss her. She is also survived by nieces: Vicki Moore and Dawn Miller; and nephews: Lance Kuykendall and Kevin Kuykendall; as well as two great-nieces and two great-great nephews.

Gloria's family would like to extend sincere thanks to Ken and Gail Brinson and Brenda Allen for their love and care for Gloria during these past months. They never hesitated to answer the call.

Goin' up to the spirit in the sky
That's where I'm gonna go when I die
When I die and they lay me to rest
I'm gonna go to the place that's the best
-Norman Greenbaum

Gloria's tribute was written in her honor by her family.
